

Pope proposes a “new ecumenical spring” at the World Council of Churches

Pope Francis has relentlessly pursued joint ecumenical efforts with the hope of achieving Christian unity. For that reason, the very man who often avoids trips to centers of power made a special daylong “ecumenical pilgrimage” to Geneva, Switzerland on 21 June to mark the 70__

© 2015 The Holy See. Published by the Vatican News Service. All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted, in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, or by any information storage and retrieval system, without the prior written permission of the Holy See. For more information, please contact the Holy See Press Office at +39 06 67891.

Christopher White-Catholic Voices