

The Holding Heart

Carry the Love that you treasure deep in your open heart;
melodise fragments of beauty
that sing in your life from the start.

Listen to depths in your silence;
draw on the strength of your Lord;

lengthen the web of your weaving and capture the world in its cord.

This is a song of forever;

this is a message for all:

offer compassion to others and recognise this as our call.
