

Commentary on the Gospel for Tue, Feb 15th 2011

Jesus is annoyed by the difficulty his disciples are having in understanding his words, because of their blindness. They have before them many signs of the kingdom but they don't fully recognize the newness of it all. Ask the Holy Spirit to give you eyes to look and see, to hear and understand.

The Forge