

Commentary on the Gospel for Wed, Feb 16th 2011

The healing of the blind man is an example. A blind person is one who sees everything as dark –he might be pessimistic-; or who does not see what is before him- he might be unconscious-. Jesus using a strange ointment helps him to gradually recover his sight. Ask Jesus now for light and hope, the cure to blindness.

The Forge