

Commentary on the Gospel for Sun, Feb 20th 2011

You may or may not agree with Jesus. But don't fall into the trap of seeing him as a simplistic theorist. The only way to build peace in fellowship is to love until it hurts, St. Anthony Mary Claret, founder of the Claretians, interpreted it with these words: "To love is to work and suffer." The worst thing for love is to reduce it to romanticism.

The Forge
