

Commentary on the Gospel for Sat, Feb 26th 2011

Becoming a child is essential for growth in the Kingdom. But do not idealize childhood. Jesus recommends it very carefully. He knows that childhood is the most propitious time of great learning. He experienced it in his own life. Anthropologists and educators today can vouch for it. Childhood and discipleship are, in that sense, synonymous.

The Forge