

Commentary on the Gospel for Tue, Apr 12th 2011

Patience is a deficit good in today's world. Many of us expect it, but we're not too willing to offer it. Many expect quick solutions, immediately.

For God, time does not exist. It is unnecessary for him. However, he gave it to a human being. God is patient and merciful. Every day and every hour is given as an opportunity for repentance. God's "kairos" - the time of grace. In Christ is our salvation.

Krzysztof Stawicki, cmf