

Commentary on the Gospel for Thu, Apr 14th 2011

The patriarch Abraham is an example of faith, unlimited trust in God. This trust became the foundation of covenant and God's promises. Abraham became a friend of God. God fulfils his promises. Son of God came into the world that we may have life and have it fully. Do I invest in my friendship with God? Maybe, I try to avoid his commandments or as in a supermarket, I put in my basket those commandments which I like them. Being a believer today is a challenge, but God does not place before us the impossible.
