

Commentary on the Gospel for Sat, Jan 12th 2019

The wisdom and humility of John the Baptist continues to glow even in the Gospel passage of today. Responding to the report brought by his disciples, he says: “No one can receive anything except what has been given from heaven. You yourselves can testify that I said that I am not the Christ, but that I was sent before him.”

As Christians, we have been sent to make the way for Christ. We should rejoice if through our words, actions and ministry our friends and family members can encounter the author of life; Christ Jesus.
