

Commentary on the Gospel for Sat, Jan 19th 2019

The call of Levi and the events that followed at the house of Levi are summed up in the response of Jesus: “Those who are well do not need a physician, but the sick do. I did not come to call the righteous but sinners.”

God calls those whom he chooses and makes them fit for his ministry. Self-righteousness may bloat our ego but may keep us away from encountering the mercy of God that has been manifested to us in Christ.
