

Commentary on the Gospel for Sat, May 14th 2011

Love, and only love, is the offer made by the Father in Jesus. “Staying in that love” will be the disciple-friend’s challenge, which will be achieved by obeying his commandments. What is the advantage of becoming a “slave” to other interests; if you lose the only friend that can give you joy?

The Forge