

Commentary on the Gospel for Wed, May 18th 2011

Whoever believes in Jesus, will not be confined to darkness. The Easter light illuminates his way, becoming more and more like him who, being the light, loves the poor and the children; he heals, blesses and consoles the sick.

The Forge