

Commentary on the Gospel for Thu, May 19th 2011

Getting ready to “enter into the forge” remember that in the community of Jesus’ disciples, no one is “Lord” over the others, but the servant. Blessed are you if you understand these things and practice them. Your communion with others will make sense.

The Forge