

Commentary on the Gospel for Wed, May 25th 2011

What advantage is there in thinking you are a follower of Jesus, if you're not bound to him by listening to His Word, by your communion with him, through prayer and the fire that drives you to be motivated by the cause?

The Forge