

Commentary on the Gospel for Mon, Jul 18th 2011

Miracles do happen. In fact, news of miracles spread like a brush fire and we oftentimes rush to the site as soon as we can. What is the place of miracles in our faith? Jesus did perform a lot of wonders in the world. However, Jesus made them happen not in order to convince us about Him using spectacular force. Jesus never wanted that we follow Him simply because He can amaze us with His power. Faith is certainty in our adhesion to Jesus' words, teachings and deeds. What miracles do is to place us in a good disposition that such words and teaching can become a reality.
