

Commentary on the Gospel for Sun, Sep 11th 2011

Forgiveness is not a feeling but an option. And even before that, it is a gift. We are quick to demand that we are forgiven. But we usually have problems with forgiving others. Jesus invites us to put ourselves in the shoes of others. Or to see ourselves before God. Everything changes.

The Forge