

Commentary on the Gospel for Wed, Sep 28th 2011

Three vocational stories, each without apparent success. We do not follow Jesus to see our own plans through but to incorporate ourselves into his plans. There are several conditions: "I will follow you, Lord if....". Following Jesus does not mean adding something to what we already have: it means to start living all over again.

BD