

Commentary on the Gospel for Fri, Sep 30th 2011

Those who despise the messengers will end up despising the person they are heralding. To forsake the church means to forsake Jesus himself. And to despise him is to despise the Father, Faith without intercession merely becomes a projection of our own fears and interests.

BD