

Commentary on the Gospel for Thu, Nov 17th 2011

Every day is a revelation of God's love for His people. Even in the ordinary life, God is making himself known to us. God speaks to us not only as we listen to the Word and celebrate the Eucharist, but even in the way we relate to our brothers and sisters. After so many activities and preoccupations, at the end of the day, when we look back at what had happened to us, we ask ourselves "Did we recognize that God has always been there?" When a community fails to recognize this everyday visitation of God, it leads itself to self-destruction.

BD