

Commentary on the Gospel for Sat, Nov 19th 2011

Why are there so many gloomy faces inside the Church? Good Friday happens only once in the church calendar yet many people are still putting on their Good Friday faces. We are children of Resurrection! We are Easter people because our God is not a dead God but a living God. Yet reality tells us that many people are going to church with heavy hearts and gloomy spirits because like the Saducees, they are preoccupied with concerns like who will be the real husband of a woman who married seven times! They are still concerned with worldly things. They missed the point that Resurrection is not about legalities but about Jesus who emerged victorious against death and evil.
