

Commentary on the Gospel for Fri, Dec 23rd 2011

God fulfils his promise and he expects us to carry out our commitment. This is the case with Zechariah. By naming his son John, he set into motion the mission of his son in the great plan of God for our salvation. God counts on our cooperation. Are we willing to submit our wills to Him?

BD