

Commentary on the Gospel for Sun, May 6th 2012

Lectio Divina

Read

John 15:1-8 Chapter 15 emphasizes love. Disciples must remain with Jesus and must bear fruit, must take care of each other.

Reflect

In this gospel disciples are called to abide by their master. The faithfulness and fruitfulness of the followers of Christ rest on the firmness of the connection to the source of their faith. How connected are we to Christ?

Pray

Pay attention to your connection to Christ. Do we pray only when we need something or do we pray because our being depends on it.

Act

Test how firmly connected you are to Christ. Does your life bear fruit and fullness of life?
