Readings: Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary

First Reading: Mic 5:1-4a

The LORD says:

You, Bethlehem-Ephrathah,
too small to be among the clans of Judah,
From you shall come forth for me
one who is to be ruler in Israel;
Whose origin is from of old,
from ancient times.
(Therefore the Lord will give them up, until the time when she who is to give birth has borne,
And the rest of his brethren shall return to the children of Israel.)
He shall stand firm and shephred his flock
by the strength of the LORD,
in the majestic name of the LORD, his God;
And they shall remain, for now his greatness shall reach to the ends of the earth;

he shall be peace.

Brothers and sisters:

We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose.
For those he fortskers he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, so that he might be the firstborn among many brothers.
And those he predestined he also called; and those he called he also justified;

and those he justified he also glorified.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 13:6ab, 6c

R (Isaiah 61:10) With delight I rejoice in the Lord.

Though I trusted in your mercy, let my heart rejoice in your salvation. R./ With delight I rejoice in the Lord.

Let me sing of the LORD, "He has been good to me."

R./ With delight I rejoice in the Lord.

Of her was born Jesus who is called the Christ.

Now this is how the birth of Jesus Christ came about. When his mother Mary was betrothed to Joseph, but before they lived together, she was found with child through the Holy Spirit. Joseph her husband, since he was a righteous man, yet unwilling to expose her to shame, decided to divorce her quietly.

Such was his intention when, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary your wife into your home. For it is through the Holy Spirit that this, child has been conceived in her. She will been as on and you are to name him Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins." At his soe, he will be as a full fill when the people through the prophet: what the Lord had said will her with the hild and bear a son.
