Readings: Saint MATTHIAS, Apostle

First Reading: Acts 1:15-17, 20-26

Peter stood up in the midst of the brothers and sisters (there was a group of about one hundred and twenty persons in the one place).

He said, "My brothers and sisters, the Scripture had to be fulfilled which the Holy Spirit spoke beforehand through the mouth of David, concerning Judas, who was the guide for those who arrested Jesus. Judas was numbered among us and was allotted a share in this ministry, For it is written in the Book of Psalms:

Let his encampment become desolate, and may no one dwell in it. and:

May another take his office.

Therefore, it is necessary that one of the men who accompanied us the whole time the Lord Jesus came and went among us, beginning from the baptism of John until the day on which he was taken up from us, become with us a witness to his resurrection."

So they proposed two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was also known as Justus, and Marthias.

Then they prayed.

"You, Lord, who know the hearts of all, show which one of these two you have chosen to take the place in this apostolic ministry from which Judas turned away to go to his own place."

Then they gave lost to them, and the lot fell upon Manthias, and he mere constead with the Elman Anorther.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 113:1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 7-8

R./ The Lord will give him a seat with the leaders of his people.

or Alleluia.

R./ The Lord will give him a seat with the leaders of his people.

From the rising to the setting of the sun is the name of the LORD to be praised. High above all nations is the LORD;

R./ The Lord will give him a seat with the leaders of his people.

Who is like the LORD, our God, who is enthroned on high and looks upon the heavens and the earth below?

R./ The Lord will give him a seat with the leaders of his people.

or Alleluia.

with the princes of his own people.

R./ The Lord will give him a seat with the leaders of his people.

or Alleluia.

Jesus said to his disciples:

"As the Father loves me, so I also love you.

Remain in my love.

If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and remain in his love.

"Have told you this so that my joy might be in you and your joy might be complete. This is my commandment love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I no longer call you slaves, because a slave does not know what his master is doing. I have called you friends. I have called you friends. I have called you friends not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you.

This I command you: love one another."
