Liturgy Alive of Feria

Opening Prayer

Merciful Father of all people, you open the doors of your kingdom to invite us all, good and bad alike, to share the life of Jesus, your Son. Give us the wisdom and the strength to respond to your generous call with the whole of our being. Help us to go the loyal way to you and to one another of Jesus Christ, your Son and our Lord, who lives with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
Liturgy of the Word
First Reading Introduction
The first reading reflects the primitive conditions and the moral underdevelopment of the period of the Judges. Jephthah, a man of good will and a dedicated servant of Yahweh, lacks the moral discemment to distinguish between the binding force of an improdent vow and respect for the human person.
Gospel Introduction All are invited to the kingdom of God, even repeatedly, the good and the bad alike. Salvation is open to all. But they should be willing, they must respond to the call. And once they respond, they should be consistent. They must share in the death struggle of Christ against evil, to live with the life of Christ. The force to live the Christ.
life is indeed given to us in the eucharistic meal. There the Lord prepares us for the royal marriage feast.

Prayer over the Gifts
Lord our God, in these signs of bread and wine you invite us now to the table of your Sun Jesus Christ, as a token and pledge of your funding feast meal in heaven. Give us the strength for respond to your call, that we may become new in Christ and the lish lift day all offer day, until you let us share in his glory for ever and ever.

Prayer after Communion

Loving Father,

we thank you for giving us your Son
as our food and drink
on the long road to you.

Through this eucharist
make us resemble him more and more,
that we may respect and love him
in one another,
that we may be his image to the world,
and that you may recognize his traits in us
when you welcome us
to the everlasting feast of joy.

Grant us this through Christ our Lord.

All are invited to the Lord's feast meal, but not all come. Are some absent because we do not make them feel welcome? Let us do all we can to make people feel at home with us. May God bless you all, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
