Liturgy Alive of 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time (A) A. Feasting With the Lord Greeting (See First Reading) The Lord has prepared for all people a feast of rich food, a banquet of fine wines. He will wipe away the tears from every cheek. May the Lord of our joy be always with you. R/ And also with you. Introduction by the Celebrant A. Feasting With the Lord Happy are the days of a good celebration, when we can forget our worries for a while, enjoy one another's company and laugh and sing, dance and be happy. We are lucky to have such a day now and then, a day of feasting and real joy. That is what God wishes for all of us. He has invited us to happiness without end and as a token of this he invites us, even now, to the feast meal of his Son Jesus. Do we care about this invitation? Are we aware that everyone is invited, also the weak and the poor and the sad? Let us enjoy our celebration with the Lord. We come to today's eucharist in response to the invitation of Jesus our Lord who welcomes all to his festive meal. All are invited, but not all are here. Some dare not come because they feel we do not welcome them or think they are not good enough. Others are not aware that they are invited. Jesus asks us to welcome all and to make all feel at home with us as he feels at home with them. Penitential Act Instead of the joys of an honest life we choose at times the sadness of sin. Let us ask the Lord to forgive us. (PAUSE) Lord Jesus, you offer us the joy of forgiveness and acceptance and love: Lord, have mercy. R/Lord, have mercy. Jesus Christ, in the name of the Father you came to invite us to the everlasting wedding feast of the Kingdom. Christ, have mercy. R/Christ, have mercy. Lord Jesus, you invite to your feast of love the weak and the humble with the strong and the healthy: Lord, have mercy. R/Lord, have mercy. Have mercy on us, Lord, and take us out of the shame and sorrow of sin. Keep us in your caring love and lead us to everlasting life. R/Amen.

Opening Prayer

Let us pray that we may enjoy God's happiness with all the peoples of the world (PAUSE)
Lord God, our Father, we come together here as a people to share in the feast of Jesus, our Savior.
Let this celebration remain the sign of the feast without end which you have prepared for us.
Make us rejoice with you and welcome all with open arms, the poor and the rich, the weak and the strong. Make all accept your invitation, that we may rejoice with all in Christ Jesus our Lord. R/Amen.

Liturgy of the Word
First Reading Introduction: God prepares a feast for all peoples
In a vision of hope, the prophet describes the time of the messiah-savior in terms of a feast mea	I. All peoples will come to this meal and find in God the fullness of life and happiness.
Second Reading Introduction: I can do everything through Christ my strength Paul thanks the Christians of Philippi who had sent him material help in prison. God also has given him strength in his trials.
Gospel Introduction: Come to the feast
Everything in life is an invitation from God, but we often offer excuses. We have also the mission to invite others to the feast of God's love.

Introduction to the Eucharistic Prayer

We are now invited to share in the sacrifice of Jesus our Lord. That means: to accept his life, his love, but also to give ourselves with him to one another and to the Father.

Invitation to the Lord's Prayer

We accept the invitation of Jesus our Lord to pray with him to our Father in heaven.

: R/ Our Father...

Deliver Us

Deliver us, Lord, from our apulty, our casy excuses and pretexts that Leep us from accepting your invitation to follow your Son on the road to you.
Do not allow us to be sad,
since you are our joy and strength.
Keep us from all si that divides us and lead us forward in hope to the coming among us in power and mercy of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

R/ For the kingdom..

Invitation to Communion

This is the Lord who invites us:

Come, the table is set,
everything is ready.
Come to the feast.
Happy are those who are invited to the supper of the Lamb.

R/ Lord. I am not worthy...

Thanksgiving (J. Zink)

(This prayer can be said by all if they have leaflets, or read slowly by the leader as a guided thanksgiving.)

God, we bless you, we worship you, we praise you for your glory. We rejoice in this festive day which we receive from your hand. We thank you for the meal and for letting us enjoy your many gifts. We thank you for food and drink, which are the image and sign of a feast. We thank you for all the love that surrounds us, for the nearness of people whom we love. We thank you for giving us many reasons to be glad and joyful. We rejoice in all that succeeds and we trust your word that ultimately all our life will be successful, when after all our efforts we celebrate your feast for all eternity. R/Amen.

Lord, our faithful God,
we have celebrated with joy
the liberating presence among us of your Son Jesus Christ and we have eaten from his table.
Accompany us in life
through the Holy Sprit of your Son,
the playful Spirit of wisdom and fantasy,
of encounter and gratuitous love,

that hand in hand we may go on believing in the unexpected and making the impossible come true: a world of justice and love, until you gather us around the table of your feast that lasts for ever. R/Amen.

Blessin

In this eucharist we have been attentive to the voice of God: we have come to this feast, we have heard God's word.

But now the invitation continues in the troutine of veryday life: in our prayers and hopes, but also in our work and cares.

Let us be open to that call, also when it cries to the continue in the needs of the poor and the humble. May God bless you and keep you: the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. R/Amen.

May God go with you and keep you in his love. R/Thanks be to God.
