Liturgy Alive of Feast of Sts. Simon and Jude, Apostles

Introduction

	out these apostles. The nickname "Zealor" probably indicates the Simon had been among the anti-Roman activists before he became an apostle. Jude, brother of James and also called Thaddeus, asked Jesus after the Last Supper how Jesus could show himself to the world as Messiah without using force. Jesus answering that the believers would accept him because of his love.
Opening Prayer
1 1 1	s we celebrait your apostles Simon and Jude, we remember how your Son could build his Church we skan drailfully people Ind make these its firm foundations. We pray with your Son hat our faith may remain unshaken your Church and in those who lead it. As they struggle and grope, et your Spirit fill them with his wisdom and his fire. We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Gen	eral Intercessions
- For the pope, th	at he may lead the Church in faith, wisdom and mercy, we pray:
-	For our bishops, that united with the pope they may see and attend to the great needs of the Church in our day, we pray:
	For those who are afraid to answer the call of God to follow Christ to serve the people of God, we pray:
Prayer over the	Gifts
1 1 1 2 2	in the name of Jesus, your Son. our ministers and people offer to you to be memorial off his death and resurrection. et as, sintle lass we are, be your body people, that we may bear witness to your name do be believable sign to all hat your Son lives and that you are our mighty God and Father,
Prayer after Co	mmunion

Holy God and Father, to us, your people on the way, you have let your Son speak to u his uplifting, inspiring word and give us his food of strongth. Renew your Church in its leaders and members, that we may live as we believe and raise in our world a prophetic voice that speaks with credibility of justice, truth and unity. May thus the world believe in your Son,

Jesus Christ our Lord.

Blessing

Jesus entrusts his own mission to weak and fallible human hand. "Entrusts," for he trusts them enough. With the help of the Holy Spirit we can do God's work. May almighty God bless you, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.