Liturgy Alive of 7th Sunday in Ordinary Time (B)

Greeting

Let us give thanks to the Father through Christ Jesus our Lord who is our strength and who considers us worthy to serve him. Jesus Christ came into the world to save sinners, as first of all.

May his peace and forgiveness be always with you. R/ And also with you.

Introduction by the Celebrant

Sometimes we encounter people who are paralyzed by the past; some have, so to speak, withdrawn from life because they cannot overcome their failures and they have given up. Others want to start afresh, but those around them nail them to their past and do not offer them new chances. God is different. To God, bygones are bygones.

He not only forgives but wipes out the past of the sinner who repents. Even the invitation and strength to repent comes from God through Jesus Christ. All he wants is to make a new beginning with people. Let us celebrate in this Eucharist with joy Christ's forgiving and up-building love, get up from our paralyzing fears and go with him new roads of hope and love

Penitential Act

Let us recognize truthfully and humbly that we have often failed the Lord and ask him for forgiveness and strength. (pause)
Lord, you took our sins upon yourself to reconcile us with you and one another, but we often imprison people within their failures. Lord, have mercy. R'Lord, have mercy.

Jesus Christ, you are attentive to every sign of sorrow and conversion, but we easily condemn and do not forget hurt feelings: Christ, have mercy. R/ Christ, have mercy.

Lord, you want to go with us new ways of friendship and hope, but we refuse to say the liberating word that restores people: Lord, have mercy. R/ Lord, have mercy.

Have mercy on us, Lord, do not remember our past; forgive us our sins and go with us the new way that leads to everlasting life. R/ Amen.

Opening Prayer

Let us pray to our merciful Futher
to forgive and restore us (pause)
God of love and compassion,
you are slow to anger but rich in mercy.
Who can forgive hide you,
wholehantedly and without regret?
When we repent, you do not remember our sins
but only the good we have done.
In our humilation and shame we pray you:
touch us with your healing hand,
set us free from our self-made prisons,
and give us the joy and freedom brought us

by Jesus Christ our Lord. R/Amen.

Second Reading Introduction: Constant, Because Of Christ

Gospel Introduction: A Paralytic Can Walk Again

General Intercessions

With all the trust of the paralytic's friends, let us bring before the Lord the needs and miseries of the Church and of the world. Let us say: R/ Have mercy on your people, Lord.

* That the Church, aware of its own shortcoming and missed chances, may humbly offer forgiveness and strength to all who err, and become in the world a sign and instrument of reconciliation, let us pray: R/ Have mercy on your people, Lord.

* That nations may aband on the senseless race for advanced weapons that allow them to destroy on eanother; that together ways search for peace and ecooperate in projects that benefit all, let us pray: R/ Have mercy on your people, Lord.

* That our homes may be places of mutual understanding and reconciliation; that the young may learn from their parents and each other to forget injuries and to accept and love one another in their diversity and individuality, let us pray: R/ Have mercy on your people, Lord.

* That to may show special love and cancer for the handicapped, for children who will never the selfor's colorid uworld, for those who will never here slows, of you, the tay ray. R/ Have mercy on your people, Lord.

* That in all Christian communities we may be less concerned about our rights and our offended pride, but rather, give Christ's love a fair chance to grow among us and to create us anew, let us pray: R/ Have mercy on your people, Lord.

Father, you are so good that our sins become small in comparison. Help us to say our yes to you and to all that is good, by the power of Jesus Christ our Lord. R/Amen.

Prayer over th	e Gifts
God our Father
	we bring before you the stale bread of our sorrow and the sour wine of our indifference.
	These gifts remind us
	of the suffering and death of your Son that brought us healing and peace. Let them now become the bread of resurrection to a new life of hope and commitment and the wine of joy and brotherhood
	by which your Son goes with us
	his way of love to our neighbor
	and to you, our God for ever. R/ Amen.

Let us give traines and praise to the Father through Jesus, who then for us so that our sails may be roughed, and who lose from the dead to give us the and fresh hope.
ntroduction t	o the Lord's Prayer
	mark to the

we pray with Jesus our Lord: R/ Our Father...

Give us the peace of your forgiveness and reconciliation with those we have hurt. Set us free from our past and from our paralyzing fears, that we may go forward toward your future with courage and with joyful hope as we prepare for the full coming of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. R/ For the kingdom...

Invitation to Communion

This is Jesus the Lord, the Lamb of God who takes away our sins and heals all who come to him. Happy are we to be invited to his supper of peace and reconciliation. R/Lord, I am not worthy...

Prayer after Communion

Lord our God,
in this Eucharist your Son has given us
the space to live and be happy.
For he has assured us of your pardon
and shared with us his table of friendship.
Let him open our eyes
to the good there is in people,
that we may not remain strangers to one another
but people who build through our deserts
roads of understanding and love

that bring us together in Jesus Christ our Lord. R/ Amen.

Dear friends in Christ:

It is rare for us, perhaps impossible,
to forgive one another the way God forgives,
completely, without regrest or second thoughts.
Is in not this perhaps what is meant by the saying,
"To err is human, for forgive drivne?"
Let us try with all that is in us
to put back on their feet those paralyzed
by their own limitations and our condemnations
and to accompany them on their journey
to God and to one another.
May Almighty God help and bless us:

the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. R/Amen.

Let us go with one another the road of reconciliation and service. R/ Thanks be to God.
