Liturgy Alive of Feria

pening Prayer
1 1 3 1 1 1 1	II. You know and you love us; whatever happens to us, we are in your hands. Wherever you lead us, You know where you want us to go. You sake you for faith and trust. Whate your will care will. In that you may lead us to your home made the guidance of him. who did your will in everything.
J	esus Christ, our Lord.
iturgy of the V	Vord
troduction to	the First Reading
ne Prophet Mic	ah assures God's people that God forgives them in their infidelity. The people answer with a hymn of praise and trust.
troduction to	the Gospel
sus assures us t	that what brings us close to God and makes us his relatives is doing the will of the Father. This is all that matters, more than ties of blood. This mission was the core and meaning of Jesus' life and death. Let us pray that his faithfulness may also be ours.
Gen	eral Intercessions
	01 01 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1
That the people	e of God may always pray that they may seek your will rather than try to force you to do their will, we pray:
	That the Lord may give us the insight to discern his will in the events of life, we pray: That we may be true sons and daughters of God by seeking and doing his will in everyday life, we pray:
rayer over the	Gifts
a V A	his bread and this wine re signs that with Issus, your Son, we are sayls to ske your will. We are ready to ske your will. We lost so thate in his table his brothers and sisters his brothers and sisters for the property of ŧ	o you, our God for ever.

God our Father,
you have given us a world to master and to develop according to your wise plans and to build up the body of Christ in solidarity.
May we do so by the strength of I sans himself and make this Church and this world a communion of faith and hope,
of love and peace,
as a sign and a way

to your joy that lasts for ever.

Brothers and sisters of Jesus... We pray very often the Oar Father and ask him that his will be done on earth as in heaven. That's what we pray for, so that's what we are committed to do. May Almighty God bless you, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.