

Liturgy Alive of Feria

Opening Prayer

Holy God of our happiness, you entrust your good news of life
to weak and fallible people.
Fill us with the strength of your Holy Spirit,
that we may be ready to speak your message
with the language of our life.
Let Jesus your Son work with us and in us,
that each of us may have the courage to say:
Here I am, Lord, send me as your messenger to share your glad tidings of happiness with all who are willing to listen.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading Introduction

Paul warns again his people against relying on human wisdom rather than on the “foolishness” of God and against giving in to division.

Gospel Introduction

Simon Peter and his companions were amazed that an outsider could tell them where to catch plenty of fish when they, fishermen by profession, had been unsuccessful. This man with a striking message was indeed extraordinary. They were caught in his spell and followed him. Later, they would put out into deep water, that is, they would risk and dedicate their life for Jesus and “catch people” to put them in the spell of Jesus’ message and life.

General Intercessions

- Lord, attract people to you by opening their eyes and hearts to the beauty of your message of good news, we pray:

- Lord, attract people to you by your inspiring, loving personality, we pray:

- Lord, let your Church with all its communities attract people to you by serving them, we pray:

Prayer over the Gifts

God our Father,
in these signs of bread and wine
we celebrate the central event that sums up our faith
and gives meaning to what we are and do:
the death and resurrection of your Son.
Purify our lips and hearts with his body and blood and send us to proclaim with our lives that Jesus is our living Lord and that you are our Father, now and for ever.

Prayer after Communion

Lord our God,
in your love you have called each of us to a task in life and a place in your plan which no one can fulfill for us;
you have chosen your Church, that is us, to be the irreplaceable sign and witness of the death and resurrection of your Son.
Make each and all of us
capable of our mission and send us out into the deep by the strength of the body and blood of our unique Savior,

Jesus Christ our Lord.

Blessing

The Lord entrusts to you his word and his body. Go now, speak his word and be his body to the world. May the Lord bless you, that you may be a blessing to all, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
