Liturgy Alive of Feria

Opening Pray	er
	you want our faith to be a lamp placed on a lamp-stand, so that people might see your light and not stumble in the dark. Speak your word to us, give us the life-giving Spirit of your Son, his Spirit of unity and freedom, that we may be to the world then ew humanity of Jesus Christ, who lives with you and the Holy Spirit,  one God, now and for ever.
	one God, now and for ever.
Liturgy of the	Word
irst Reading
Proverbs is	a wisdom book fictitiously ascribed to Solomon. Wisdom is a set of experiences and traditions taught to the young; it secularizes the prevalent "sacralization" of human thought, showing that God and the human person are not at loggerheads. God does not keep people from thinking and reflecting for themselves the prevalent and the human person are not at loggerheads. God does not keep people from thinking and reflecting for themselves the prevalent and the human person are not at loggerheads. God does not keep people from thinking and reflecting for themselves the prevalent and the human person are not at loggerheads. God does not keep people from thinking and reflecting for themselves the prevalent and the human person are not at loggerheads. God does not keep people from thinking and reflecting for themselves the prevalent and the human person are not at loggerheads. God does not keep people from thinking and reflecting for themselves the prevalent and the human person are not at loggerheads. God does not keep people from thinking and reflecting for themselves the prevalent and the human person are not at loggerheads. God does not keep people from thinking and reflecting for themselves the prevalent and the human person are not at loggerheads. God does not keep people from thinking and reflecting for themselves the prevalent and the human person are not at loggerheads. God does not keep people from thinking and reflecting for the human person are not at loggerheads.
Gospel Introd	uction
Christ spea	ks of the word of God as a light that cannot remain hidden; it should shine in the lives of those who believe in the gospel, so that they can bear witness to Christ and his message.
Gen	neral Intercessions
That the light	of our love may shine and bear witness to Christ in our friendliness and understanding and our sharing with the needy, we pray:
	- That the light of our justice may shine in our efforts to respect the rights of everyone and in our work to bring equity and justice to all, we pray:
	- That the light of our joy may shine in our sympathy and affection for one another, in our faithfulness to our friends, in our liturgical celebrations and in our sense of community, we pray:
Prayer over th	e Gifts accept these gifts of bread and wine and let them become for us the body and blood of your Son. May be nourish our faith and make us capable of bearing witness that is him we can become one and live for one another, for he is our Lord for ever.
Prayer after C	ommunion

Let him stay with us this day,
that people may discover
how much he means to us
and what he can do with us
notwithstanding our limitations.
Not to us, Lord,
but to you and to your Son,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit

be all honor and praise for ever.

Blessing

To bear witness consists in calling attention not to ourselves but to God and what he can do in us, poor instruments. We can only propose what we believe and live and then leave the rest to God's grace. May God give you this attitude and bless you, the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit.
