Liturgy Alive of Feria

pening Prayer
to ar M ar in fo fo La	nd Father, us have invited us to stay with you, listen to the message of Jesus your Son de do accept from him your peace and love, ay we welcome him wholeheartedly de learn from him to welcome him too people who appeal to us for forgiveness and a bit of warmth, repatience and hope and joy. et them not pass your servants by. et ask this through Christ our Lord.
iturgy of the W	ord
irst Reading Int	roduction
Paul asserts th	aat he has the right to speak in the name of Christ because Jesus Christ himself has given him the Good News to speak it.
Gosp	pel Introduction
A hospitable f	amily or person makes guests feel at home and gives them the best available. But if we are truly hospitable we are also listening to the guest and to receive from him or her perhaps more than we give and in a deeper way. We receive the guest as a person. God presents himself in the Bible as a traveler on a journey.
	y as a stranger or a poor person. Christ also says that in the homeless we welcome him.
Gene	eral Intercessions
That we may rec	ognize the Lord in the features of a stranger and welcome him as we would welcome the Lord himself, we pray:
- 5	That we may welcome the best our brothers and sisters give us, even before we share the best of ourselves with them, we pray:
-5	That we may be and remain hospitable people, we pray:
rayer over the C	Sifts
in O Pr ar ev ar Er	ay we welcome Jesus your Son these offerings of bread and wine, these offerings of bread and wine, the part to this word and his mentality. The part to the word and his mentality. The part to welcome him in people du to encounter him in their person, ten when he comes at another time di another way han we expect him. The part to
Je	sus Christ our Lord.
rayer after Con

to be our guest.
In our everyday life
may we always be open to anyone in need.
Help us to recognize you and welcome you
in everyone who comes to us.
In every human encounter
offer us your grace and love
through Jesus Christ your Son,
who lives with you and stays with us

now and for ever.

Blessing

In this eucharist we have been the Lord's own guests. He has been very bospitable to us, listening to us and speaking to us his warm words of friendship. He sends us out now to be one another's guests and hosts. Welcome now the blessing of almighty God, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.