

Liturgy Alive of Third Sunday of Easter - C -

Greetings (See Second Reading)

To the One who is sitting on the throne and to the Lamb
be all praise, honor, glory and power.
May the Risen Lord be with you all.

R/ And also with you.

Introduction by the Celebrant

A. Encountering The Risen Lord

Perhaps we envy the apostles for having seen and experienced Jesus after he had risen from the dead. There is no reason to be envious of them: If we have faith, we too experience him as risen, alive, present, and sharing our life. If we have faith we know he is there when we suffer mishaps and failures or when we rejoice. If we have faith, we know Jesus is there when we strengthen and encourage one another. If we have faith, we know Jesus is with us when we share a meal of friendship, and, especially and deeply, when we eat together from the table of the Eucharist. Lift up your heads and be happy: the Risen Lord is with us in life.

B. Do You Love Me?

If Jesus would ask you today: "How close am I to you? Do you really love me?" what answer could you give him? There have been times certainly when we offended and betrayed him by our sins. I hope that you still dare to answer: "Jesus, notwithstanding my weakness and my occasional cowardice, I still want to say that I believe in you and that I love you. I know you keep loving me and I want to keep loving you."

Penitential Act

A. Encountering The Risen Lord

When we sin, we act as if we want to keep the Lord out of our life.
Let us ask him to forgive us.
(pause)
Lord Jesus, you walk by our side when we suffer and struggle, but often we do not recognize you:
Lord, have mercy. R/ Lord, have mercy.
Jesus Christ, we encounter you when we encourage the sick and disheartened, but often we are not aware it is you:
Christ, have mercy. R/ Christ, have mercy.
Jesus, you are present
when we share our joy and friendship at meals and when you set before us the food of the Eucharist:
Lord, have mercy. R/ Lord, have mercy.
Have mercy on us, Lord,
forgive us our sins and restore our joy.
Walk by our side and lead us to the happiness of everlasting life. R/ Amen.

B. Do You Love Me?

Indeed, the Lord keeps forgiving us and we ask him to restore us fully in his love.
(pause)
Lord Jesus, you bring us the joy of forgiveness.
I want to love you for your mercy.
Lord, have mercy. R/ Lord, have mercy.
Jesus Christ, you have given us life.
I thank you for it and I love you.
Christ, have mercy. R/ Christ, have mercy.
Lord Jesus, you are our companion in life.
Stay with me, for I love you.
Lord, have mercy. R/ Lord, have mercy.
Have mercy and forgive us, Lord,
and make us grow in love of you and people.

Lead us to the joy of everlasting life. R/ Amen.

Opening Prayer

A. Encountering The Risen Lord

Let us pray to the Father to give us enough faith and love to recognize Jesus present in our life (pause)
God our Father,
how different and how much richer our life would be if we were more aware of the presence of your risen Son Jesus among us.
Give us enough love and faith to see him inspiring and guiding our community on the road of compassion and justice.
Make us feel his presence
when we are toiling and struggling as if in vain.
Make us recognize him as a guest in our homes and at our family meals.
Make us fully aware that he is among us when we meet for prayer and the Eucharist.
For then we will be strong and joyful through Jesus Christ our Lord. R/ Amen.

B. Do You Love Me?

Let us pray that our life
may be a response to God's love
(pause)
God, source of all love you have made your love visible to us in the life, death, and message of your Son and our brother Jesus Christ.
May all of our life be a visible statement that we love you in return.
Make us echo your love
by caring for our brothers and sisters with a love freely given, even when it is not answered.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. R/ Amen.

First Reading Introduction: We Bear Witness That Jesus Is Our Guide And ?Savior

No threats from the powerful can silence a Church that bears witness to the Risen Lord. Like the apostles, we can count on the strength of the Holy Spirit.

Second Reading Introduction: All Glory To The Lamb That Was Sacrificed

The apostle John encourages his persecuted Christians with a vision from heaven. There he sees Jesus in his glory. Though Jesus was slain, he is alive and glorious. Those brought to life by him share in his risen life and victory.

Gospel Introduction: It Is The Lord!

The apostles were toiling, apparently without success. They did not recognize the Lord's presence. But he was really with them, as he is with us, to give us strength and hope.

General Intercessions

A. Encountering The Risen Lord

Let us pray to our Lord Jesus Christ for all those who bear witness to him in their life and apostolate, and let us say: R/ Risen Lord, hear our prayer.

- Lord, your apostles worked all night without result. Sustain the courage of all your apostles today who toil without apparent success. And so we pray: R/ Risen Lord, hear our prayer.
- Lord, the apostles did not recognize you. Often, we too do not see that you are there. Make us aware that you are with us. And so we pray: R/ Risen Lord, hear our prayer.
- Lord, today the net of the Church is filling again with peoples from all over the world. Let that net not tear but let it accommodate all, we pray to you, Lord: R/ Risen Lord, hear our prayer.
- Lord, also today in many places your messengers are warned not to speak in your name. May your witnesses obey you rather than people and preach your word without fear, we pray: R/ Risen Lord, hear our prayer.
- Lord, your disciples are persecuted also today, they are put into prison and tortured. Give them the courage to be faithful and to bear their sufferings with joy, we pray: R/ Risen Lord, hear our prayer.
- Lord, may our Christian communities together with the whole of creation give you glory, honor, and praise, we pray: R/ Risen Lord, hear our prayer.

Lord, it is good to be here with you. You are our strength and our joy, now and for ever. R/ Amen.

B. Do You Love Me?

Jesus asks us, God's people today: "Do you love me?" What shall we answer him? We say: R/ Lord, let your love grow in us.

- Lord, you ask your Church today: Do you love me? Let all God's people answer you: "Yes, Lord, we love you, for we nourish you in the hungry and the thirsty; we visit you in the sick and in prisoners." We say: R/ Lord, let your love grow in us.
- Lord, you ask all Christians today: "Do you love me?" Let them answer you: "Yes, Lord, we love you, for we try to seek unity in you to become your one flock with you as our one shepherd." And so we pray: R/ Lord, let your love grow in us.
- Lord, you ask parents today: "Do you love me." Let them answer, "Yes, Lord, we love you, for we let our children recognize you in our care and loving concern." And so we say: R/ Lord, let your love grow in us.
- Lord, you ask those who suffer: "Do you love me?" Let them answer: "Yes, Lord, we love you, for we let our children recognize you in our care and loving concern." And so we say: R/ Lord, let your love grow in us.
- Lord, you ask our communities today: "Do you love me?" Make us answer wholeheartedly: "Yes, Lord, we love you, for we are open and welcoming you in the least among us, we try our best to become one heart and soul." And so we pray: R/ Lord, let your love grow in us.

Lord Jesus, how happy we would be if we could do all we have just prayed for! Give us the power and the courage to love you very deeply, in yourself and in one another, now and for ever. R/ Amen.

Prayer over the Gifts

God, loving Father,
you put good words on our tongue and you fill our hands with good gifts;
you entrust even your Son to us and you place him into our hands.
Through him, then, and together with him,
let us become to the world
your word and your gift, your sign of hope, and make us capable of bearing witness to your love for people,

today and tomorrow and for ever. R/ Amen.

Introduction to the Eucharistic Prayer

With joyful hearts we praise the Father for Jesus' continuous presence in his Church as a whole, in its leaders and in all of us.

Invitation to the Lord's Prayer

With the fullest trust we pray to our Father in heaven that he will always be with us through his risen Son Jesus Christ, and we say: R/ Our Father...

Deliver Us

Deliver us Lord, from every evil and grant us peace in our day.
Strengthen us with the power of your Son,
the Lamb that was slain for us,
that our faith may remain firm in persecution, contradiction, and trials, as we look forward with joyful hope for the coming in glory of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

R/ For the kingdom...

Invitation to Communion

This is Jesus the Lord, who says to us, his disciples today:
"Come and eat."
He takes bread and gives it to us.

Happy are we that the Lord is here. R/ Lord, I am not worthy...

Prayer after Communion

Loving Father,
we are very happy to thank you for letting us encounter your Son Jesus here in this Eucharist.
Let the words in which we recognize his voice keep resounding in our heart and life.
Now that we have shared his table together, may his bread of life give us the strength to bear witness to his name and to encourage our brothers and sisters.

We ask this in the name of Jesus the Lord. R/ Amen.

Blessing

It is good that we have become more aware how the Risen Lord is with us not only in this Eucharist but also in the life of every day.
Let us learn to see the signs of his presence in the people we meet, in the good they do to us
and all we do for one another.
May this bring you great joy and may Almighty God bless you all:
the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. R/ Amen.

Go in the joy of the Lord.

R/ Thanks be to God. Alleluia.
