Liturgy Alive of Wednesday of the 6th Week of Easter

of him who is our Lord for ever.

Introduction
The apostles s	hould not be said because Jesus leaves them. Their faith will become deeper and more spiritual when Jesus is no longer physically present. The Holy Spirit of truth will continue with them the mission of Jesus. This Spirit of truth will give them no new message, but he will guide the apostles and the Church to deepen understanding of the life and the message of Jesus and to confront these constantly with the events and problems of the times and thus lead the Church forward.
	St Paul in Athens gives us an example of an apostle and missionary who tries to take the pagan religion of the Athenians as a starting point and to spiritualize it by stripping it from materialism and formalism.

	We ask you this through Christ our Lord.

May the Spirit of truth come and guide us to all truth, about ourselves, in our mutual relations, concerning what is going on in our world. May God give our world this Spirit and bless us, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
