Liturgy Alive of Saint Lawrence, Deacon, Martyr, Memorial

Saint	LAWRENCE	Descon Marty	r Memoria

ntroduction
	As a deacon, Lawrence was placed in charge of the poor of Rome. When he was ordered to surrender the goods of the Church to the persecutors, he distributed them to the poor. When asked where the treasures of the Church were, he showed the poor He was broiled alive. Rome venerates him as one of the greatest and the poor of the church were, he showed the poor of the poor of Rome. pening Pray	or the state of th pening 1 ruy
	Our generous God. You want us to be to everyone ministers of your joy and generosity.
	Help us to express our gratitude to you and to reveal your goodness by sharing what we are and have with joy and in all sincerity like the deacon St. Lawrence, who initiated the self-giving of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.
ntentions
That we may	be discreet and unobtrusive in helping people in need, we pray: That we may learn to see the unspoken needs of timid, simple and humble people, we pray:
	- That the Lord make us joyful and generous of hearts and hands, we pray:
rayer over th	Gifts
ord God, our l	ife and joy. you give us not only what we need but you give us the best of yourself our you give to the best only owned. in your Son Jessen Christ. Accept from our hands these humble girls of bread and wine, which the have received from you, and through them it can be more among us.
	May they express that we too are willing to share with others without demanding favors or recompense.
	We ask this through Christ our Lord.
rayer after C	onmunion
ord our God,	your gifts to us are humble and veiled, like the giving himself to us of your Son,

Grant this through Christ our Lord.

Prayer after Communion

"The more you sow, the more you reap." Let us learn from God to be generous, for he is not stingy with his gifts to us. God loves the joyful giver. May God bless you, the Futher, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
