Liturgy Alive of 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time (C)

Greetings

What do you have that you have not received?

If everything you have was received as a gift, then why boas?

If anyone must boast, let him boast of the Lord.

May the Lord, the giver of life, be with you.

Introduction by the Celebrant

A. A Good Place For Everyone

How do we regard other people and ourselves in relation to them? Do we look down on others, at least on some, and hold ourselves as more important, people to be noted and given honors? The message of today is: In the Kingdom there is a good place for everyone. If there is to be any preference, it is for the poor, the disabled, the humble, for they are given the first place by God, they are the favorites of Jesus. Jesus asks us here and now: What place do you take and what place do you give to others?

Today our Lord Jesus invites us to his table. He knows that we are people with faults, people who have burt him and others, by the wrong we did or the good we didn't do. Knowing who we are he still loves us and invites us, as his friends, to join him at his table. Let us humbly take part in his meal and ask the Lord to make us more open to the humble, to people who have erred, and to the poor.

Penitential Act

A. A Good Place For Everyone

We seek honors and self-advancement, even elbowing others aside to become first.
We ask the Lord and people to forgive us. We ask the Lord and people to forgive us. (pause)
Lord Jesus, you came among us not to be served but to serve:
Lord, have mercy, #Lord, have mercy,
Jesus Christ, you invite everyone to the table of your feast meal:
Christ, have mercy, #C Christ, have mercy,
Lord Jesus, you came to call not the healthy but the sick:
Lord, have mercy, #Lord, have mercy,
Have mercy on Ly, Lord, and forgive us our pride and hunger to be noticed and honored.
Admit us to your table

B. Know Your Place

Poor in love and wounded by sin, let us seek the Lord's forgiveness. let us seck the Lord's forgiveness. (pause)
Lord Jesus, you ate with sinners and encountered them with love and compassion:
Lord, have mercy. Re Lord, have mercy.
Jesus Christ, you were always available to the humble and the poor.
Christ, have mercy. Re Christ, have mercy.
Lord Jesus, you give yourself here to us so our food and the drink of life:
Lord, have mercy. Re Lord, have mercy.
You have never stopped loving us, Lord.
Forgive us once more all our sins

and lead us to everlasting life. R/ Amen.

Opening Prayer

Let us pray to God who invites everyone to his Kingdom who invites everyone to his Kingdom (pause)
Our Father, you who lift up the lowly;
your Son Jesus came into our world as the servant of all and he cherished the helpless. With him, make us respect and appreciate the weak, the defenseless, and the humble

Liturgy of the Word
First Reading Introduction: The Greater, The Humbler
We cannot be open to God's grace unless we put aside our pride. People appreciate lack of pretense and they see through our boasting.
Second Reading Introduction: Our Savior And Covenant Is Jesus
Second Reading Infroduction: Our Savior And Covening is Jesus
Through Jesus, the mediator of the new covenant, Christians, even on earth, are already as if living as citizens of heaven.
Cognel Introduction, Come Un Higher My Eviend
Gospel Introduction: Come Up Higher, My Friend
In his kingdom, God invites those who recognize their lowliness and need of salvation. Likewise, the follower of Christ invites the poor and the humble.

and accept to be numbered among them.

Dispose us to help them and to seek their help.

For you have poured out your mercy on us too

Invitation to the Lord's Prayer

Conscious of our limitations, we expect all good things from God and so we pray with Jesus our Lord:

Deliver Us

Deliver us Lord, from all pride, which sets us up against one another and makes us unwilling to serve.
Keep us free from the evil spirit
of seeking gain and fame
at the expense of others, even as we try to serve one another and work together for the full coming of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

R/For the kingdom...

Invitation to Communion

This is Jesus the Lord who invites us to his table. He comes to seek us at the lowliest place and tells us to move up higher.

R/ Lord, I am not worthy...

Prayer after Communion

Lord our God,
we stand here before you
as guests invited to his table
by your Son Jesus Christ.
We thank you that he has accepted us
without judging or condemning us, though our failt is not clear-eyed
and we often limp while trying to follow him.
Dispose us too to accept as friends and guests
the poor and the weak, just as you have accepted us in Jesus Christ our Lord. R/ Amen.

If we want the Lord to live among us, there is only one place that fits us: the last place, the place of people who know how to serve.

There is no room for pretending to be what we are not.

And before God, we are all small, we cannot claim any merit.

May this attitude be ours with the blessing of Almighty God, the Father, and the Son and the Holy Spirit. R/Amen. Let us go with one another God's way of peace and love. R/Thanks be to God.
