

Liturgy Alive of 26th Sunday in Ordinary Time (C)

Greetings

Blessed be our Lord Jesus Christ:
to him be honor and everlasting power.
May his grace and peace
be always with you.

R/ And also with you.

Introduction by the Celebrant

A. Open Your Eyes

How come that we are merely aware of the misery—poverty, discrimination, injustice around us? Is it because we have not learned to see, or that we prefer not to see? It is said of God in the Old Testament that he saw the misery of his people, and, seeing it, he liberated them. Jesus saw the misery of the people around him and he did all he could to free them. Let us ask the Lord here with us that we may learn to see our own afflictions and those of the people around us. Then we can, with God's help, do something to remedy them.

B. Bridging The Gap Between Rich And Poor

We know that in our country and elsewhere—in fact, in large parts of the world—there is a wide gap between the rich and the poor. Many ask themselves, hopefully we too, "What can I do about all this misery? My means are very limited, and I cannot carry the burden of the world." But we know what the Gospel asks of us. If all contribute, each in his or her own place, their share toward solving the problems of poverty, need, and suffering, how much better our whole world would become and how much nearer the kingdom! We need no angel to come and tell us. Listen to the message of the Lord himself.

Penitential Act

Blind as we are to our faults and to the needs of people
let us ask the Lord to forgive us and to open our eyes.
(pause)
Lord Jesus, you saw in the eyes of sinners
their hunger for acceptance and forgiveness:
Lord, have mercy. R/ Lord, have mercy.
Jesus Christ, you saw the silent need of the poor
to share in the life of the community:
Christ, have mercy. R/ Christ, have mercy.
Lord Jesus, you saw the need of the sheep without shepherds
for someone to follow and to believe in:
Lord, have mercy. R/ Lord, have mercy.
Take our sins away, Lord,
and open our eyes to compassion and love.

Lead us to everlasting life. R/ Amen.

Opening Prayer

Let us pray to God
for compassionate and generous hearts
(pause)
Our generous and loving God,
your Son Jesus is risen from the dead
and tells us to see the needs of the poor
and to give them food and drink.
In them, may we recognize your Son
and love him and care for him.
You have filled us with good things,
all free of charge.
Make us poor of heart, that we may understand the poor,
generous enough not to measure our gifts,
and grateful for all you have given us
by bringing joy and liberation to the needy.

We ask this in the name of Jesus the Lord. R/ Amen.

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading Introduction: The Rich Will Be Made Poor

The prophet Amos rings out God's indignation over the insensitive rich. They enjoy life without any concern for the poor. God cannot accept that any person or community would tolerate such inequality and indifference.

Second Reading Introduction: Witnessing To Christ With Our Lives

Christians, especially leaders in the community, must bear witness to the Father and to Jesus by their Christian living. For they owe to God their salvation in Jesus Christ.

Gospel Introduction: God Will Make The Poor Rich

The rich man of the parable is unconcerned about the poor man. But God's justice reverses the situation: the poor will become rich before God, the selfish will lose everything.

General Intercessions

Let us pray to our loving Father, the protector of widows and orphans and the support of the humble and of strangers. Let us pray: R/ Lord, hear our prayer.

- For a prophetic voice for the Church, that it may not tolerate the poor to be trampled upon or to be silenced, let us pray: R/ Lord, hear our prayer.
- For open minds for the leaders of nations, that all the money wasted on weapons of destruction may be used for the welfare of people, let us pray: R/ Lord, hear our prayer.
- For open hands to all who extend theirs, whether in friendship or as an appeal for help, that we may welcome them and fill them, let us pray: R/ Lord, hear our prayer.
- For open hearts to all loneliness, to all fear and bitterness, that we may respond by becoming healers in the name of the Lord, let us pray: R/ Lord, hear our prayer.
- For open eyes toward the humble and the little ones, that we may respect and restore their dignity as human beings and children of the Father in heaven, let us pray: R/ Lord, hear our prayer.
- For communities in which the rich care for the poor and the poor teach the rich how to be patient and dependent on God, let us pray:
R/ Lord, hear our prayer.

God our Father, help us to use the goods of this earth to bridge the gap between rich and poor, for we are all your sons and daughters, now and for ever. R/ Amen.

Prayer over the Gifts

Our God and Father,

here are bread and wine,
simple food and the drink of joy.
By this gesture of offering
we assume our responsibility for the poor.
With your Son, let us never remain indifferent
to the human and spiritual misery
of our brothers and sisters in need.
Accept the poverty of our own hearts
and be our only lasting riches,

through Jesus Christ our Lord. R/ Amen.

Introduction to the Eucharistic Prayer

Let us praise the Father with Jesus for showing us his compassion through his Son. May he give us a lively and warm concern for our brothers and sisters in need.

Invitation to the Lord's Prayer

Recognizing that we are all poor

before our Father in heaven,
we pray to him with all trust
the prayer of Jesus, his Son:

R/ Our Father...

Deliver Us

Deliver us Lord, from all selfishness
that closes our hearts and hands
to the needs of the people around us.
Keep us from becoming enslaved
by the things we have, even by our talents.
Help us to free your people from want and fear
with the gifts of our minds, hearts,
and with material goods,
that we may prepare for the full coming
of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

R/ For the kingdom...

Invitation to Communion

This is Jesus our Lord.
He invites us to share his meal
and to learn from him to share
what we are and have.
Happy are we to be invited to his supper.

R/ Lord, I am not worthy...

Prayer after Communion

God, Father of the poor,
your Son has been here among us
and he has knocked on the door of our hearts.
We have welcomed him,
but it was he who gave us to eat.
May we keep receiving him
and making him feel comfortable as our brother
every time someone begs for our help or, when in need, is too timid
to express where it hurts.
We ask you for this sensitivity

through Jesus Christ our Lord. R/ Amen.

Blessing

In this Eucharistic celebration
the Lord has enriched us with his word
and with the gift of himself.
His bread of life tasted better
because it was shared.
We are now ready to enrich one another and to make our happiness greater
by sharing it,
with the blessing of Almighty God,
the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. R/ Amen.
Go in peace to love and serve the Lord

in one another. R/ Thanks be to God.
