Liturgy Alive of Feast of the Baptism of the Lord

Greeting
Today Jesus was baptized in the Jordan: the Father recognized him as his beloved Son; the Holy Spirit prepared him for his mission of service. May the Lord's Spirit of sonship and service be always with you. E/And also with you.
Introduction by the Celebrant
Today, on the feast of the Lord's baptism, Jesus, though he was without sin, made himself one with sinners, with outcasts, with the poor in any way, to bring them God's forgiveness and life. He accepted that difficult mission. At our baptism we have become one with him. Do we too, like him, accept our mission to be good se of God and people, even when this is a difficult task? After all, we are Jesus' disciples.
Penitential Act
Tunicinal Att
We too are God's beloved sons and daughters since the time we were baptized. Have we answered God's love? Let us ask the Lord for forgive us. (pause) Lord Seass, servant of God. you tanglit us how to serve. Jesus Christ, beloved Son of the Father. Horselp You we became his daughters and sons: Christ, have merey. Refusis, have merey. Lord Jesus, you made younself one with all sinners and with the weak: Lord, have merey. Rev. Lord, have merey. Have merey on us, Lord, and take all our sins away. Make us live as people loved by God and lead us to everlasting life. R Amen.
Opening Prayer
Let us pray that with Jesus we may be faithful servants of God and people (pause) God our Father, with Jesus you call us to be your belowed sons and daughters and with him you give us the mission to become humble and dedicated servants. Grant that we may not break those crushed by sin and sorrow. Help us to serve always the cause of right, to be eyes to the binal and a viole for the downtrodden. May we please you in all we do. We ask this in the name of Jesus the Lord. R/Amen.
Liturgy of the Word
First Reading Introduction: Here Is My Beloved Servant; My Spirit Rests On Him

- Today let us pray to our Father in heaven, who sent his Son among us as a servant to set us free and to make us new. Let us say to him: R/Lonl, hear your people.

 For the Church and its leaders, that they and we may not seek compromises with wealth and power but serve and help the poor, let us pray; R/Lond, hear your people.

 For all those who do not know Christ or who are estranged from the Church, that the way we live Christ's gospel may reveal to the time live over the Lond, let us pray; R/Lond, hear your people.

 For us Christians and for all people, that the Holy Spirit may guide us to respect all who are little and defenseless; that we may not crush them but give them justice, let us pray; R/Lond, hear your people.

 For all those who are beptized, that they may follow Christ and that, like him, they may learn to sever rather than to be care that they can be called the pray; R/Lond, hear your people.

 For us and all our Christian communities, that the eucharist may strengthen in us the gifts of the Holy Spirit and make us ever more faithful to our vocation as God's beloved children, let us pray; R/Lond, hear your people.

Lord our God, you have called us to become new when we were baptized. Forgive us our cowardice and keep renewing us through your Spirit, that we may have the courage to go with Christ all the way, for he is your Son and our Lord for ever. R/Amen.

Prayer over the Gifts
Our God and Father, these gifts of bread and wine will become your beloved son Jesus on whom your favor rests. Strengthen us with body and blood and let his Holy Spirit renew us as people who five without compromise the message of justice and love and the very life of your Son. In this way, may we truly be your beloved sons and daughters on whom your favor rests, now and for ever. R/Amen.
Introduction to the Eucharistic Prayer
Let us give wholehearted thanks to the Father for having made us in baptism his beloved sons and daughters together with Jesus our Lord.
Invitation to the Lord's Prayer Baptized in the Holy Spirit and children of the Father through Jesus, his beloved Son, we pray with all trust Jesus' own prayer. R/Our Father Deliver Us
Deliver us, Lord, from every evil and grant us your peace in our day. Revive in us the grace of buptism and guide us by your Ploly Spirit, that we may be loyal to our mission of living the life of Jesus in this world, as we wait in joyful hope for the coming in glory of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. RF For the kingdom
Invitation to Communion

This is Jesus our Lord, the beloved Son of the Father, on whom God's favor rests. Happy are we to be invited to share his table and to live his life. R/ Lord, I am not worthy...

Our God and Father,
you have opened heaven to us to strengthen us with the Bread of life and to fill us with the Holy Spirit.
Make us new and call us away from our certainities and attachments.
Send us out to go forward without fear
on the road of justice and peace, that we may be your beloved children together with your faithful Son,

Jesus Christ our Lord. R/Amen.

Blessing

At his baptism in the Jordan
Jesus was invested with his mission of bringing God's liberating love to people.
The Spirit guided him to carry out that mission in uncompromising faithfulness.
At our baptism with water and the Spirit,
we have received the mission to live like Jesus,
to go about doing good as he did,
to be faithful and just to God and to people.
May the God in whose name we have been baptized protect, guide and bless you for this task:

the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. R/Amen.

Let us go in the name of the Lord. R/Thanks be to God.
